Accidental Death & Dismemberment Coverage Options

This valuable coverage benefits beyond your disability or life insurance for losses due to covered accidents — including while commuting, traveling by public or private transportation and during business trips. MetLife’s AD&D insurance pays you benefits if you suffer a covered accident that results in paralysis or the loss of a limb, speech, hearing or sight, brain damage or coma. If you suffer a covered fatal accident, benefits will be paid to your beneficiary.

Supplemental AD&D Coverage Amounts for You

Supplemental AD&D Coverage Amounts for Spouse/State-Registered Domestic Partner and Child(ren)

Your spouse/state-registered domestic partner will be eligible for coverage in $10,000 increments up to $250,000. Your child(ren) will be eligible for coverage amounts in $5,000 increments up to $25,000.

*Child(ren)'s Eligibility: Dependent children ages from 14 days to 26 years are eligible for coverage. In TX, regardless of student status, child(ren) are covered until age 25.

Covered Losses

This AD&D insurance pays benefits for covered losses that are the result of an accidental injury or loss of life. The full amount of AD&D coverage you select is called the “Full Amount” and is equal to the benefit payable for the loss of life. Benefits for other losses are payable as a predetermined percentage of the Full Amount, and will be listed in your coverage in a table of Covered Losses. Such losses include loss of limbs, sight, speech and hearing, various forms of paralysis, brain damage and coma. The maximum amount payable for all Covered Losses sustained in any one accident is capped at 100% of the Full Amount.

Will Preparation

To help ensure your decisions are carried out

When you enroll in supplemental term life coverage, you will automatically receive access to Will Preparation Services at no extra cost to you. Both you and your spouse/state-registered domestic partner will have unlimited in-person or telephone access to one of MetLife Legal Plans, Inc network of 17,500+ participating attorneys for preparation of or updating a will, living will or power of attorney.* When you use a participating plan attorney, there will be no charge for the services.* Like life insurance, a carefully prepared will (simple or complex), living will and power of attorney are important.

- A will lets you define your most important decisions, such as who will care for your children or inherit your property.
- A living will ensures your wishes are carried out and protects your loved ones from having to make very difficult and personal medical decisions by themselves. Also called an “advanced directive,” it is a document authorized by statutes in all states that allows you to provide written instructions regarding use of extraordinary life-support measures and to appoint someone as your proxy or representative to make decisions on maintaining extraordinary life-support if you should become incapacitated and unable to communicate your wishes.
- Powers of attorney allow you to plan ahead by designating someone you know and trust to act on your behalf in the event of unexpected occurrences or if you become incapacitated

Call 1-800-821-6400 and a Client Service Representative will assist you.

* You also have the flexibility of using an attorney who is not participating in the MetLife Legal Plans, Inc network and being reimbursed for covered services according to a set fee schedule. In that case you will be responsible for any attorney’s fees that exceed the reimbursed amount.
