MISSION STATEMENT AND PREAMBLE

The purpose of this agreement is to set forth certain terms and conditions of employment and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations between the parties. The parties agree it is to their mutual benefit to promote systematic and effective employee-management cooperation; fair and reasonable working conditions; effective methods for the prompt adjustment of differences, misunderstandings, and disputes; and dignified and fair treatment of employees in the implementation of all policies and procedures.

The parties recognize the special nature of KUOW as an independent, self-sustaining service of the University of Washington and as a distinguished institution in the Pacific Northwest. They also recognize the special, mission-driven nature of public media as distinguished from commercial media. The parties embrace KUOW's specific mission: to create and serve a more informed public, one challenged and invigorated by an understanding and appreciation of events, ideas and cultures. The parties also recognize that creating good wages, benefits, and working conditions is critical to attracting and retaining high-quality employees who can build sustainable careers serving the communities of Seattle and beyond.

ARTICLE 1 – UNION RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes that SAG-AFTRA is the sole and exclusive collective bargaining representative for University of Washington regular full-time and regular part-time employees working at the Employer’s radio station KUOW and employees working in remote bureaus of KUOW, who perform work that is exempt from civil service creating news and local programming, specifically, those University of Washington employees who produce, report, write, host or announce news for KUOW radio including web content, video, and podcasts.

ARTICLE 2 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as expressly modified by a specific provision of this Agreement, he Employer reserves and retains exclusively to itself the rights in the exercise of the functions of management, including but not limited to the following rights: to manage, direct and operate the Employer's business, finances, and facilities; to hire employees and determine the size of the workforce; to direct and assign work to its employees; to determine the qualifications and responsibilities of employees; to develop and implement performance evaluation programs; to establish and/or change operational methods, technology, materials, equipment and facilities; to select employees for training and to train employees; to set and modify schedules and shifts, including the start time and end time for all shifts; to issue corrective action and to discharge employees for just cause; to lay off employees for lack of funds or work (except that, where the Employer decides to close down or relocate operations covered by this Agreement, the Employer agrees to inform the Union in advance of the decision and, upon request, bargain over the effects of such decision); to establish new facilities and/ or change, relocate or close existing facilities; to discontinue operations in whole or in part; and to determine the scope and direction of the business.

In addition, the Employer retains its rights to determine all content and editorial matters that are not in conflict with the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to determining what content to publish or air; determining what platforms to use for publication or dissemination of content; determining programming and programming standards; introducing new shows and modifying or ending shows; and determining coverage areas.

ARTICLE 3 – NON-DISCRIMINATION AND DIVERSITY

3.1 The parties individually agree that they will not engage in any act or practice or pursue any policy which is discriminatory against any employee because of race, religion, color, creed, age, sex, national origin, citizenship, marital status, disability, Veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, pregnancy, political affiliation, political belief, or membership status in a union. Unlawful harassment is included as a form of prohibited discrimination.

3.2 Complaints. Employees who feel they have been the subject of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are encouraged, but not required, to discuss such issues with their supervisor, administrator, or Human Resource Consultant for local resolution. The goal of local resolution is to address and resolve problems as quickly as possible and to stop any inappropriate behavior for which a University employee is responsible. A formal complaint may be filed with the University Complaint Investigation and Resolution Office (UCIRO). Employees may also file discrimination, harassment or retaliation complaints with appropriate federal or state agencies or through the union grievance process in accordance with Article 6 of this Agreement. In cases where an employee files both a grievance and an internal complaint regarding the alleged discrimination, harassment or retaliation the union grievance will be suspended until the internal complaint process has been completed.

In accordance with Executive Order 31, retaliation against any individual who reports concerns regarding discrimination or harassment, or who cooperates with or participates in any investigation of allegations of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation is prohibited.

3.3 Information. In January of each year of this Agreement KUOW UW will provide SAG-AFTRA with (a) information showing the job classification, race and gender of all employees in the bargaining unit as of January 1 of that year; (b) information showing the job classification, race and gender of all new hires into the bargaining unit during the prior calendar year and (c) information showing the job classification, race and gender of employees promoted within the bargaining unit during the prior calendar year; and (d) W-2 gross earnings for work performed under this Agreement.

3.4 Racial Equity Committee. In furtherance of the mutual commitment expressed in this article the employer agrees to continue the Racial Equity Committee for the purpose of addressing and promoting the goal of a diverse workforce, commitments to promoting diversity through community interaction, programming and coverage of the stories and to discuss ideas and opportunities to further the parties mutual commitment to the principal of diversity. The Racial Equity Committee is currently comprised of SAG-AFTRA covered employees and other employee groups including managers of KUOW, managers of UW employees, who meet regularly. The need for the Committee, associated strategy and participants will be revisited on an annual basis.

ARTICLE 4 – PRAYER AND LACTATION ACCOMMODATIONS

The Employer shall provide a wellness room, consistent with current practice and applicable law, that can be exclusively scheduled for lactating mothers (Administrative Policy Statement 46.7) and religious and spiritual practice. Parties agree that if any issues arise, then the labor management committee shall be convened as soon as practicable.

ARTICLE 5 – FLEXIBLE WORK AGREEMENTS/ARRANGEMENTS

KUOW shall make reasonable efforts to grant employees’ request for alternative work arrangements.

ARTICLE 6 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

The Union and the Employer agree that it is in their best interest to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. Whenever possible, disputes should be resolved informally prior to filing a formal written grievance. To that end, all supervisors and employees are encouraged to engage in free and open discussions about disputes.

6.1 Definition. A grievance, within the meaning of this Agreement, shall be defined as any dispute between the University and the Union, an employee, or a group of employees as to alleged misapplication or misinterpretation of the terms of this Agreement or the Employer’s written personnel rules, policies or practices.

6.2 Employee Grievance Rights. Any employee who believes they have been aggrieved may personally seek relief from that condition by filing a grievance, irrespective of any supervisor’s opinion of the grievance’s validity. In the presentation of grievances, the employees shall be safe from restraint, interference, discrimination, or reprisal.
6.3 Employee Representation. The Union as exclusive representative of bargaining unit employees is the responsible representative of said employees in grievance matters.

6.4 Time Limitations. An extension of the time limitations as stipulated in the respective steps below, may be obtained by mutual consent of the parties. Failure of the union to comply with the time limitations without a request of time extension shall constitute withdrawal of the grievance. Failure of the Employer to comply with the time limitations without a request for time extension shall move the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure. For the purpose of calculating time requirements, the first day shall be the day following the day on which the employee was aware, or reasonably should have been aware, of the issue giving rise to the grievance. Saturdays, Sundays, and University holidays shall be included in the calculation of days except that the final day may not be on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday but will end at the close of the first working day following the Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

6.5 Contents. The written grievance shall include the following information:

   A. The date upon which the grievance occurred.
   B. The specific Article(s) and Section(s) of the Agreement violated.
   C. The past practice, rule, policy violated.
   D. Specific remedy requested.
   E. The grievant(s) name.
   F. Name and signature of Union representative (Staff or Steward).
   G. The nature of the grievance.

Failure to include the above information shall not be a reason for invalidating the grievance.

6.6 Pay Status – Meetings. Meetings and discussions on the grievance held with the Employer in connection with this grievance procedure shall normally be held during regular business hours, or as mutually agreeable, and no deduction in pay status shall be made for the grievant or steward for reasonable time spent in such meetings or discussions during the employee’s scheduled duty hours. The work schedule of the grievant will be seriously considered in the scheduling of the grievance meetings. Time off for employees and stewards shall be granted by supervision following a request, but in consideration of job responsibilities. If the requested time off cannot be granted, the parties shall arrange for time off at the earliest possible time thereafter.

6.7 Grievance Withdrawal. A grievance may be withdrawn by the Union in writing at any time, and if withdrawn shall not be resubmitted.

6.8 Resolution. If the Employer provides the requested remedy or a mutually agreed-upon alternative, the grievance will be considered resolved and may not be moved to the next step.
6.9 Consolidation. Grievances arising out of the same set of facts may be consolidated by written agreement.

6.10 Filing and Processing

A. Filing. A grievance must be filed within thirty (30) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence. When possible the thirty (30) day periods above should be used to attempt to informally resolve the dispute. The union steward or staff representative will indicate when a discussion with the Employer is an attempt to informally resolve a dispute.

B. Alternative Resolution Methods. Any time during the grievance process, by mutual consent, the parties may use alternative methods to resolve the dispute. If the parties agree to use alternative methods, the time frames in this Article are suspended. If the selected alternative method does not result in a resolution, the Union may return to the grievance process and the time frames resume. Any expenses and fees of alternative methods will be shared equally by the parties.

C. Processing. The Union and the Employer agree that in-person meetings are preferred at all steps of the grievance process and will make efforts to schedule in-person meetings, if possible.

6.11 Steps of the Grievance Procedure. All grievances shall be processed in accordance with the following procedure. Upon mutual agreement, Step One, Two or Three may be skipped. Grievances over final counseling or dismissal will begin at Step Two.

Step One: Supervisor, Manager or Designee. If the issue is not resolved informally, the Union may file a written grievance to the supervisor or designee, the Human Resources Consultant, and the Labor Relations office (laborrel@uw.edu). The Employer will designate a supervisor, manager or designee who will meet in person or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant. The date of the meeting will be mutually agreed upon within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance and when possible the meeting will take place within the aforementioned fifteen (15) calendar days. The format (face to face or by telephone) for the meeting will be by mutual agreement. The employer will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) calendar days after the meeting. The Human Resources Consultant may also attend, if desired by the University. If the grievance is directed against the employee’s immediate supervisor, the grievance may be presented to the next higher level of supervision. In the event the employee’s immediate supervisor does not have authority to resolve the grievance, the grievance will be presented at the level having authority to act as determined by the Employer.

Step Two: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached in Step One, said grievance may be moved to the Step Two by filing the written grievance, including a copy of the Step One decision to department head, designee, or to the next appropriate level of management and the Office of Labor Relations within fifteen (15) calendar days after the decision from Step One. The date of the meeting will be mutually agreed upon within fifteen (15) calendar days after notice of the filing at Step Two and when possible the meeting will take place within the aforementioned fifteen (15) calendar days. The grievant may be represented by a steward and a Union staff representative. The University will be represented by the appropriate management official(s) or designee(s), a representative from the Office of Labor Relations, and a Human Resources Consultant, if desired by the University. The University will respond in writing within thirty (30) calendar days after the meeting.

Step Three: Grievance Mediation. If the grievance is not resolved at the Step Two, the Union may file a request for mediation with the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) in accordance with WAC 391-55-020, with a copy to the Labor Relations Office within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Step Two decision. In addition to all other filing requirements, the request must include a copy of the grievance and all previous responses. The Employer will inform the Union, in writing, and PERC within thirty (30) days of receipt of Mediation request if they are not in agreement. If those services are unavailable on a timely basis, the parties may request a list of grievance mediators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) or other agreed upon mediation provider. The cost of the mediation shall be borne equally by both parties.

Step Four: Arbitration. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at the prior step, or the step was skipped, either of the signatory parties to this Agreement may submit the grievance to binding arbitration. Such submittal must be made within thirty (30) calendar days following the written notice that the employer does not agree to Step Three (3) Mediation or the conclusion of the prior step. The Employer and the Union shall attempt to agree upon a mutually satisfactory arbitrator. If the parties are unable to agree on a mutually satisfactory arbitrator within ten (10) calendar days after written request to arbitrate, either party may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services (FMCS) To submit a panel of seven (7) names from which the arbitrator shall be chosen by each party alternately striking names.

Authority of the Arbitrator. The parties agree that the arbitrator shall have no power to render a decision that adds to, subtracts from, alters or modifies in any way the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The parties further agree that the decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon all parties.

The Union or the Employer will have the right to request the arbitrator to require the presence of witnesses and/or documents. The arbitrator’s decision shall be made in writing and the arbitrator shall be encouraged to render the decision within thirty (30) calendar days of the close of the arbitration.
In cases where a grievance is moved to arbitration and the Employer did not agree to Step Three: Grievance Mediation, either party may request a pre-arbitration settlement conference. These conferences shall not delay the arbitration process, and may be held with or without the presence of the arbitrator, at the option of the moving party. In the event that an arbitrator is present, the cost of the arbitrator’s participation shall be borne equally by the parties.

6.12 Arbitration Costs

A. The fees and costs of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room, will be shared equally by the parties.

B. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or canceled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.

C. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for half of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.

D. Each party is responsible for all fees and costs of its staff representatives, attorneys, experts, witnesses –and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses.

6.13 Files. Grievance documents shall be maintained separately from employee personnel files. Employee personnel files will accurately reflect the final outcome of a grievance.

ARTICLE 7 – UNION SECURITY

7.1 Dues Deduction. Upon written authorization by an individual employee to the Union, the Employer shall provide for the semi-monthly payroll deductions of union dues which are uniformly applied to all members in those bargaining units in which the Union is the exclusive bargaining agent.

7.2 Check-Off: The Employer agrees to honor from each employee a voluntary, revocable written wage assignment authorizing the Employer, during the life of this Agreement or until revoked or modified by the employee, to deduct semi monthly from the wages then owing the employee;

A. Stipulated amounts for initiation requirements until the total is paid, and/or

B. An amount to satisfy dues

All amounts deducted shall be remitted in the normal course of business by the employer to the Executive Director of the Union and said Executive Director shall acknowledge receipt of the money, in writing. the Union agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Employer from any action or actions, claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that may arise against the Employer out of the operation of this Union Security article including, without limitation these deductions, which action is commenced by any employee against the Employer, and the Union assumes full responsibility for the disposition of the funds so deducted once they have been turned over to the Executive Director of the Union as above provided. Errors made by the Employer in the deduction or the retaining of money under this provision of the Agreement shall not be considered to be a violation of this provision, but errors will be corrected promptly when ascertained. If an employee contacts the Employer to request that payroll deduction be ended, the Employer will promptly refer the employee to the Union to process the request.

The authorized wage assignment shall be in the following form: See attached exhibit A.

7.3 Revocation. An employee wishing to cancel their authorization for payroll deductions shall contact the Union. The Union shall promptly notify the Employer of any such valid revocation. Every effort will be made to end the deduction effective on the first payroll, and not later than the second payroll, after receipt by the Employer of confirmation from the Union that the revocation is valid.

7.4 During the life of this agreement, the Employer may develop a web-based electronic dues deduction reporting system. The Union may provide input to the Employer regarding its development. Prior to implementing the system, the Employer will provide the Union with notice and opportunity to bargain.

ARTICLE 8 – WORK WEEK, WORK DAY, MEAL BREAKS, AND REST BREAKS

8.1 Work week. The workweek for purposes of payroll and scheduling shall be Monday through Sunday.

8.2 Work day. The normal work day for full-time employees shall be eight (8) consecutive hours, exclusive of any assigned meal period/rest breaks taken on employee’s time. No split shifts shall be assigned.

8.3 Meal breaks. Meal breaks shall be a minimum of thirty (30) minutes, unpaid and on the employee's own time, provided the employee is off-duty for that meal period. It is the Employer's intention to provide uninterrupted meal breaks.

The meal period shall commence not earlier than the second hour of the shift nor later than the fifth hour of the shift. If the employee is required to work beyond the fifth hour without a break, the employee will be allowed to eat their meal at the duty station on the Employer’s time.
8.4 Rest breaks. Employees shall receive a fifteen (15) minute break during each four (4) hours worked. It is the Employer's intention to provide uninterrupted rest breaks.

9.1 Overtime

A. Any one of the following constitutes overtime for overtime-eligible employees:
   1. Work in excess of the daily work shift over eight (8) hours for full-time employees;
   2. Work in excess of forty (40) hours in one (1) work week.
   3. Short Turnaround (See Rest Between Shifts)

B. Overtime worked by the eligible employees shall be compensated at a rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's straight time hourly rate.

A. The parties have a mutual interest in promoting work/life balance, while maintaining high quality journalistic work. In support of this, The Employer will make a good faith effort to reduce the need for overtime, whenever possible.

B. An employee should initiate discussions with their supervisor as soon as they anticipate any workload-related issues. Supervisors will work with employees to

ARTICLE 23 – MINIMUM TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This Agreement contains the minimum terms and condition of employment. The Employer shall not enter into any agreement or contract or employ any employee upon terms and conditions less favorable than those set forth herein. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall limit the right of any employee to negotiate terms and conditions, including compensation more favorable than that set forth herein.

ARTICLE 24 – SUBORDINATION OF AGREEMENT AND SAVINGS CLAUSE

In the event that any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, such invalidity shall not impair the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement. Upon request from either party, the Union and Employer negotiating committee shall commence negotiations within (30) days for the purpose of coming to an agreement on a substitute provision for that which was declared unlawful or invalid.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or reduce the rights and privileges of the parties except where specifically modified herein.

ARTICLE 25 – SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

This Agreement shall be binding on all signatories hereto, and their successors and assigns, as required by applicable labor law. The Employer agrees to use its best efforts to have a successor assume this Agreement.

ARTICLE 26 – NO STRIKE/LOCKOUT

26.1 The Employer and the Union acknowledge that this Agreement provides, through the grievance procedure and through other administrative remedies, for an orderly settlement of grievances or disputes which may arise between the parties. Therefore, during the life of the Agreement, the Employer shall not lockout any of the employees as a result of a labor dispute or grievance or disputes on personnel matters nor shall the Union condone or authorize a work stoppage, work slowdown, or any other curtailment of work in the bargaining units.

26.2 The Union undertakes to enforce the provisions of this Article and to require compliance therewith on the part of all of its members.

KUOW's firewall policy and code of ethics in the labor-management committee on an as-needed basis.

ARTICLE 28 – CORRECTIVE ACTION/DISMISSAL

The parties will follow the “Corrective Action/Dismissal Process” outlined below. No employee shall be subject to the process except for just cause. The corrective action process will be considered to incorporate the concept of progressive action while providing a positive method for improvement rather than punitive action.

28.1 Representation

A. Employees shall be notified orally or in writing that upon request they shall be entitled to have a representative present when formal counseling, final counseling or dismissal is occurring. Employees have a right to a meeting with management whenever corrective action is issued. Attendance of a representative shall not delay the corrective action process unduly as determined by the Employer. All parties shall make every effort possible to allow for Union representation without unduly delaying the process.

B. Upon request, an employee has the right to a union representative at an investigatory interview called by the Employer, if the employee reasonably believes corrective action could result. The employer will provide reasonable time to allow an employee to secure a representative. The role of the union representative in regard to an Employer-initiated investigation is to provide assistance and counsel to the employee and not interfere with the Employer’s right to conduct the investigation. Every effort will be made to cooperate in the investigation.

C. An employee placed on an alternative assignment during an investigation will not be prohibited from contacting their union steward unless there is a conflict of interest, in which case the employee may contact another union steward. This does not preclude the Employer from restricting an employee’s access to the Employer’s premises.

D. An interpreter can be requested by either party and will be provided.

28.2 Coaching. Informal discussion or instruction between employee and their immediate supervisor. Supervisor may follow up in writing which may include a simple action plan. This is not a form of corrective action.

28.3 Corrective Action/Dismissal Process. The Employer will make clear when formal or final counseling is being conducted and will inform the employee about their right to representation under the CBA. When counseling or dismissing an employee, the Employer will make every effort to protect the privacy of the employee. Interpreters may be requested by any party.

28.4 Formal Counseling. Formal counseling (may involve administrative personnel other than the employee’s immediate supervisor) including the development of a written action plan. The action plan will identify specific problem areas, performance objectives, suggestions forremedying, and a timeframe for improvement. Prior to issuance of formal counseling, a meeting may be scheduled by the employer or requested by the employee to give the employee an opportunity to make their case before the final decision is made. Employee requests for such a meeting will be granted. An employee is entitled to representation at this meeting.

28.5 Final Counseling. Final counseling (may involve administrative personnel other than the employee’s immediate supervisor) including action plan discussion and revision, where appropriate. A decision-making period of one (1) day of paid time away from the worksite for the employee to consider the consequences of failure to follow the action plan may be used at this step. If the Employer decides to provide a decision-making day, the employee will be given a list of expectations and problem statements prior to the day taking place.

28.6 Dismissal. Prior to dismissal, a pre-determination meeting will be scheduled to give an employee an opportunity to make their case before the final decision is made. The employee has the right to have a union representative present at the pre-determination meeting. At least five (5) days prior to the meeting, the employee will be informed in writing of the reasons for the contemplated dismissal and given referenced documentation. The employee will be furnished with written notification of the outcome of the pre-determination hearing.

28.7 Demotion. Demotion of Leads and/or Supervisors may be initiated by the Employer at any step of the Corrective Action process.

The Union may bargain over the salary placement.

c. Within thirty (30) calendar days following implementation of the Employer’s decision to create or combine classifications per this article, or modify class specifications for bargaining unit positions, the Union may file an appeal with the Classification Review Hearing Officer selected under this article of this contract, to determine if the salary assigned to the classification is appropriate.

All materials considered in the position review shall be submitted to the Hearing Officer prior to the hearing and neither party will submit evidence at the hearing that was not submitted during the position review. The Hearing Officer shall endeavor to hold multiple hearings each day, and shall issue a concise decision which shall be final and binding. The Hearing Officer shall have no authority to alter the terms and conditions of this contract. Employees may be represented at the hearing and will be released from work with no loss of pay to attend the hearing. The Hearing Officer’s fees and expenses shall be shared equally by the parties.
ARTICLE 43 – SALARY OVERPAYMENT RECOVERY

Salary Overpayment Recovery

A. When an Employer has determined that an employee has been overpaid wages, the Employer may recoup the overpayment. The Employer will provide written notice to the employee that will include the following items:

1. The amount of the overpayment,
2. The basis for the claim,
3. A demand for payment, and
4. The rights of the employee under the terms of this Agreement.

Employees may request a meeting with the Employer and an interpreter to have the overpayment notification explained.

B. Method of Payback

1. The employee must choose one (1) of the following options for paying back the overpayment:
   a. Voluntary wage deduction,
   b. Cash, or
   c. Check
   d. Vacation (if under 240 hours only) or Compensatory time balances if appropriate and with prior approval from ISC Payroll

2. The employee may propose a payment schedule to repay the overpayment to the Employer. If the employee’s proposal is accepted by the Employer, the deductions shall continue until the overpayment is fully recouped. Nothing in the section prevents the Employer and employee from agreeing to a different overpayment amount than specified in the overpayment notice or to a method other than a deduction from wages for repayment of the overpayment amount.

3. If the employee fails to choose one (1) of the four (4) options described above, within twenty (20) days of written notice of overpayment, the Employer will deduct the overpayment owed from the employee’s wages or the amount due may be placed with a collection agency. This overpayment recovery will not be more than five percent (5%) of the employee’s disposable earnings in a pay period. Disposable earnings will be calculated in accordance with the Attorney General of Washington’s guidelines for Wage Assignments.

4. Any overpayment amount still outstanding at separation of employment will be deducted from their final pay.

C. Neither A nor B above are required for employee reported overpayments and/or employee corrected time including leave submittal corrections. All employee initiated overpayment corrections may be collected from the next available pay check.
D. Appeal Rights: Any dispute concerning the occurrence or amount of the overpayment will be resolved through the grievance procedure in Article 6 of this Agreement. The Employer will suspend attempts to collect an alleged overpayment until the grievance process has concluded.

E. Employees who have separated from the University or are on long-term leave must repay the University by check, which requires the ISC Payroll team to calculate the total amount owed. An overpayment cannot be considered paid in full unless it is for the amount that has been calculated by the ISC.
